60 MINUTES

- 09/01/02      "The Prince" - interview with Saudi Arabian Prince Alwaleed bin Talal bin Abdulaziz Al Saud about New York Mayor Rudolph Giuliani's refusal to accept his gift of $10 million for the families of the September 11 terrorist attack victims. Prince Alwaleed says that his critical comments on U.S. policy were just friendly advice and claims that Saudi Arabia has a stable government with no civil unrest. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael Gavshon, Solly Granatstein) (OAD: 10/28/01)
- "The War At Home"- in America's military the domestic violence rate is many times greater than that found among civilians. Victims are given little in the way of protection and only five percent of the batterers are ever court martialed. Currently a class-action suit charging the U.S. military with negligence is being drafted on behalf of hundreds of these women. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky) (OAD: 01/17/99)
- "Young, American And Muslim" - a visit to Al-Noor, a school in Brooklyn where parents pay a yearly tuition of $3,500 to provide their children with full immersion in the faith, culture and traditions of Islam. Includes interviews with some of the students at Al-Noor; Nidal Abuasi, principal of Al-Noor; and Safaa Zarzour, principal of the Muslim Universal School in Chicago. (C: Morley Safer - P: John Marks) (OAD: 04/28/02)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Trains" - train travel (OAD: 09/30/01)
- 09/08/02      "An American Town"- Ed Bradley re-visits Summit, N.J., a commuter town that lost thirty-three of its residents in the attack on the World Trade Center, to report on the healing process taking place. Includes interviews with: Debbie Rancke, Lucy Thompson, and Carol Linehan whose husbands died in the attack; Ted Stanik, principal of the Summit Middle School; Richard Kannwischer, a Presbyterian minister in Summit and Bobbi Brown, a cosmetics mogul who lent her expertise in an effort to raise the survivors' morale. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky) (followup to 09/16/01) (a double-length segment)

"The Commissioner" - an interview with former New York Fire Commissioner Thomas Von Essen, who looks back on the events of 9/11: the heroism of the firefighters who came to the scene of the attack; criticism of his management of the department and resentment among the ranks; and his personal grief over the 343 firefighters lost their lives. (C: Morley Safer - P: Alden Bourne) (followup to 60 MINUTES II - "The Commissioner" OAD: 09/19/01)

"Survivors" - a report on investment banking firm Sandler O'Neill which is on the mend a year after it lost a third of its employees and all its business records in the attack on the World Trade Center. Includes interviews with Jimmy Dunne, the firm's managing partner; Bobby Castrignano, a retired vice president at Goldman Sachs, who volunteered his services; and Terry Maltese, who formerly ran Sandler's investment fund. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Trevor Nelson) (followup to 10/07/01)

"Saudi Arabia" - Lesley Stahl traveled to Jeddah, on the West Coast of Saudi Arabia to report on the government's and citizens' reactions to accusations that their country harbors hatred for Americans - a hatred that produced 15 of 19 hijackers. Includes interviews with: Hussein Shobokshi and Mohammad Al Kherigi, Saudi businessmen and with Prince Saud El-Fizel, Saudi Foreign Minister. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Rome Hartman) "Are We Safe?" - U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services Tommy Thompson talks about America's lack of readiness for chemical and biological terrorism and the safeguards that have been put in place since the attacks of 9/11 and the subsequent anthrax mailings. Includes an interview with Sen. William Frist (R-TN) who questions the adequacy of current protective measures. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Peter Klein) (followup to 09/30/01)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Remembering 9/11" - the good and bad results of the terrorist attack on September 11, 2002

09/15/02

"Broken Promises" - a report on the deplorable conditions in Afghanistan where a pro-Western government is in place, refugees are returning and Afghans are trying to rebuild their worn-torn country. Despite huge commitments made to reconstruct the country by the U.S., Japan, Germany and 30 other countries, only a fraction of the money promised has arrived. Includes interviews with: Abdul Ahmad, one of the refugees; Elizabeth Hume, International Rescue Committee; and President Hamid Karzai of Afghanistan. (C: Christiane Amanpour - P: Andrew Tkach)

"Kennewick Man" - the recent discovery of a 9,000-year-old skeleton not only seriously questions the notion that Indians inhabited America first, but is causing a science-versus-religion battle. While scientists are fighting for the right to study the bones, Indians say their religion requires they be buried immediately. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein) (OAD: 10/25/98)

"The Pope's Maestro" - an interview with Gilbert Levine, a Brooklyn-born Jew who became the de facto musical director for Pope John Paul II. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael Gavshon) (OAD: 01/14/01)

(C: Morley Safer - P: Steven Reiner)

"Kidnapped" - a report on American-born children, kidnapped and forced to live in Saudi Arabia with their fathers, who can deny American mothers the right to see their own children. Includes interviews with: Rep. Dan Burton of Indiana who has been investigating why American mothers have not been helped by the U.S. Government and Adel Al-Jubeir, Saudi spokesman. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Janice Tomlin)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Why Do People Hate Martha?" - being a fan of Martha Stewart

48 HOURS

09/04/02 "Web Of Seduction" - report on problems which arise when children under the age of 17 receive unwanted sexual letters on the Internet, focusing on Lindsay, a 14-year-old suburban Florida girl who began receiving explicit love letters from a stranger in Greece. Despite the efforts of her mother, Stephanie Lavoie, Lindsay continued her online relationship and finally disappeared from her home. Through the efforts of Sgt. Gary Klinger of the Polk County Sheriff Department's Missing Persons unit, the stranger was identified as Franz Konstantin Baehring, a German national involved in pornography and prostitution, who lured the girl to Greece with the help of accomplices. Baehring is behind bars on charges of child abduction and exploitation. Stephanie Lavoie and her Congressman, Rep. Adam Putnam, have drafted a bill nicknamed "Lindsay's Law" to make it harder for minors to leave the country without an adult. (C: Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Josh Yager) (OAD: 01/04/02)

- 09/06/02      "Out Of Control" - focuses on one of the most controversial issues in America: what are Attention Deficit Disorders (ADD) and how should they be treated? The report follows Alex Snider and Ryan Taylor, two boys with Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) and includes interviews with Dr. William Pelham, a Buffalo psychologist who founded a special camp for children who have ADHD; Dr. Mary Ann Block of Fort Worth, Tx., who feels that medication can be dangerous for ADHD patients; and with two adult ADHD sufferers: Eileen LaGrotta, a St. Louis, Mo. woman who claims that the drug Adderall helped control her symptoms; and Dawn Hanson of Scottsdale, Ariz. who says that she had a psychotic reaction to the drug that caused her to crash her car, killing her only child. (C: Erin Moriarty, Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Paul Ryan, Mary Noonan, Paul LaRosa) (OAD: 11/09/01 with an update)
- 09/13/02      "Perfect" - focuses on the growing popularity of cosmetic surgical and non-surgical procedures, including reports on: Sandra Jones, Nancy Johnstone and Penny Nickel, three lifelong friends who at 53, decided to have facelifts together; the arrest in St. Petersburg, Florida of former doctor Daniel Callahan who lost his medical license seven years ago due to charges of malpractice and sexual abuse of his patients, but continued to practice; the use of Botox (Botulinum toxin), a new FDA-approved treatment for wrinkles; the use of lasers; a procedure by which fat taken from part of a patient's body is used to eliminate facial wrinkles; and the creation of human growth factor gel to be used in an anti-wrinkle face product. (C: Troy Roberts, Bill Lagattuta - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Nancy Kramer, Mary Sue Holland, Marcelena Spencer, Samuel Fine) (OAD: 05/03/02 with an update)
- 09/20/02      "Silent Killers" - focuses on the growing problem of antibiotic-resistant bacteria including reports on: Bobby MacKeon, a nurse practitioner whose paper cut turned into an infection which antibiotics failed to cure; Dr. David Witt, an infectious disease specialist who is concerned about resistance among common bacteria; Michael Shnayerson and Mark J. Plotkin, authors of The Killers Within, which explores why antibiotics are not as effective as they once were; phage therapy, a radically different way of treating infections developed at the Eliava Institute in the former Soviet Republic of Georgia. Phage therapy, not yet approved in Canada or the U.S., involves the use of harmless viruses whose sole function is to devour the bacteria that cause infection; Dr. Betty Kutter, a microbiology professor from Evergreen University who believes in the efficacy of phage therapy; Alfred Gertler, a Toronto bass player who believes that BACTERIOPHAGE (phage therapy) saved his life when he developed an antibiotic-resistant infection; Glenn Morris, co-founder of Intralytix, a Baltimore company doing controlled studies on phage therapy; people who suffer from potentially fatal food allergies; and John Kach, a college student who almost died from bacterial meningitis, a preventable disease. (C: Susan Spencer, Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Gail Zimmerman, Christopher Young, Marcelena Spencer)
- 09/27/02      "48 HOURS INVESTIGATES" (new title) - "A Crime Of The Mind" - Dr. Ronald Malave, a respected Florida psychiatrist, was found not guilty of having sex with his patient, "Jane," a woman diagnosed with having eight personalities. 48 HOURS INVESTIGATES has uncovered critical DNA evidence, through an independent forensic study, that was never heard by the jury in the case and which casts serious doubts on Dr. Malave's innocence. Dr. Malave was acquitted of sex crimes and cannot be retried on the criminal charges. However, a civil judge, who has been deliberating the status of Dr. Malave's medical license, is recommending that his license be permanently revoked. "Jane" is pursuing a civil suit, seeking damages from the psychiatrist. (C: Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Deborah Sternberg, Diane Slaine-Siegel)

CBS NEWS EXTENDED COVERAGE

09/11/02 CBS NEWS SPECIAL REPORT: "9/11: The Day That Changed America" - Beginning at 7:00am and continuing with no interruptions until 8:00pm, CBS News provided ongoing coverage of events commemorating the one-year anniversary of the terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon. This included live coverage of the ceremonies at the World Trade Center site in New York, at the Pentagon, and in Shanksville, Pennsylvania. At 8:00pm, a special edition of 60 MINUTES II was aired (see preceding entry for details), followed by live coverage of address by President Bush from Ellis Island. Immediately following the President's speech, CBS aired a rebroadcast of the documentary special "9/11" (OAD: 03-10-02).

CBS SPECIAL PRESENTATION

09/11/02 "9/11" - an account of the World Trade Center attack from French filmmakers Gedeon and Jules Naudet and firefighter James Hanlon. On September 11, the Naudets were in lower Manhattan taping a documentary on the Engine 7, Ladder 1 firefighters when Jules suddenly heard a roar from above and turned his camera upward. In doing so, he captured the only known video of the first plane striking the World Trade Center. Cameras still rolling, Jules followed the firefighters into the heart of what would soon be known as Ground Zero. Gedeon also rushed to the scene with members of Ladder 1. Over the next several hours, the brothers captured video which included 45 minutes of footage from inside the North Tower as the rescue effort was underway and scenes of escape before the building collapsed. (Narrator: Robert DeNiro. Executive Producers: Gedeon and Jules Naudet, James Hanlon - CBS Executive Producer: Susan Zirinsky - CBS Executive Editor: Hal Gessner - CBS Senior Producer: Tom Forman) (OAD: 03/10/02)
